Introducing DEYA, ZALO's Latest Wearable Design from the Aurora Series. Designed for women who love elegant design and smart functionality, DEYA blends discreet, wearable play with cutting-edge features. DEYA includes four versatile products with magnetic modular connections for endless mix-and-match experiences and interactive play. The vibration attachment, delivers focused, enveloping stimulation with precise contact, while the suction attachment, features a soft, wide opening for deep, immersive sensations. DEYA also incorporates microcurrent technology, designed to enhance sensitivity and elevate pleasure. Gentle low-frequency pulses provide safe, subtle stimulation, helping to awaken sensation and intensify the overall experience when used after warm-up or with lubricant. A complete, refined combination of suction and vibration for a richer and more satisfying journey.
